

HOW CAN WE MAKE A DIFFERENCE?

Crossing Lines in the BCC Community

Join the people of St. John's Norwood and share your ideas on how we can engage with our neighbors who span the racial, ethnic, socio-economic and other divides in Bethesda–Chevy Chase. Hear interesting speakers and share your thoughts about how we can make our community better together.

- Relationships Across Faiths: Rev. Mansfield "Kasey" Kaseman, Montgomery County's Interfaith Community Liaison, speaks on how interfaith discussions can build relationships across the divides. Sun., Nov. 13, 10:00 a.m.
- Engaging with a Diverse Workforce: CASA de Maryland's Lindolfo Carballo explores how reimaging our interactions with BCC's multi-ethnic and socio-economically diverse workforce can lead to a stronger community for all. Wed., Nov. 16, 7:00 p.m.
- Food Scarcity in Montgomery County: Montgomery County Councilmember Roger Berliner and Bethesda Cares' Susan Kirk share their concerns—and solutions—for the very real issue of food scarcity in our community. Sun., Nov. 20, 10:00 a.m.
- Health and Wellness in BCC: Suburban Hospital's Monique Sanfuentes highlights how local partnerships are improving health and building a better community. Sun., Dec. 4, 10:00 a.m.
- Field Trip, Family Housing Units: Montgomery Housing Partnership will lead tours of its subsidized housing units in Silver Spring. Carpools will be arranged; Sign-ups will be posted in the West Avenue lobby. Sun., Dec. 4, in the afternoon.
- Education and Diversity in Our Schools: Montgomery County Public Schools' Superintendent Jack Smith explores how we can support all children in BCC's changing student population. Sun., Dec. 11, 10:00 a.m.
