

CAMP JOY (Christian Appalachian Mission Project: Joining Other Youth)

For one week each summer, St. John's youth join other youth from DC, MD, and VA, to spend a week camping in tents, connecting with God and each other, and repairing homes in Appalachia. This is an outgrowth of our Sunday morning programs; camp participation requires consistent attendance through the school year.

